++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Remaining mostly showery over the next few days.

This Evening and Tonight:
Occasionally heavy scattered showers become less frequent through the evening, but the odd one still remains possible overnight. Cloud breaks up overnight, with most areas seeing clear spells by dawn. Brisk winds at first, especially so along southern coasts. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another day of sunny spells and showers, these heavy and possibly thundery for a time. Rain, occasionally heavy, moves into eastern areas through the evening. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain at times across many areas on Thursday, but brighter in the west by Friday, with winds remaining generally light. More widespread rain or showers, heavy at times, on Saturday.
